

STOCK MARKET

The selling pressure in the late morning session pulled the index below the reference point, slowing down the early session's upward momentum. The VN-Index ended in red at 1,272.87 points, down by 1.17 points compared to the previous trading session. Market breadth was skewed toward the negative side, with 12 out of 18 sectors declining, while Utilities and Healthcare sectors were the top performers. On the contrary, the Communication sector saw the biggest decline, marking a correction after a series of strong gains. As for foreign trading, foreign investors were net sellers on both the HSX and HNX today. The VN-Index is currently in exploration phase around the 1,270-1,280 range. If the VN-Index successfully breaks out of this range with high liquidity, the recovery trend toward 1,300 will be further strengthened.
