Market outlook

Stock market: Today, VN-Index had a slight increase after yesterday's correction. At the end of the session, VN-Index reached 1,124.44 points, increasing 2.95 points, equivalent to an increase of 0.26%. Market breadth was in a fairly balanced state with 9/18 industries increasing, of which Retail (+2.88%), Oil and Gas (+1.28%) were gradually increasing. Regarding to foreign transactions, they sold strongly on the HSX (-452.50 billion) and bought slightly on the HNX (+16.8 billion). Currently, most technical indicators on the daily and hourly charts with positive signs and improved liquidity in recent trading sessions could support the upward momentum of VN-Index in the short term with the support threshold of 1,150 points. However, the continued strong net selling by foreign investors could put pressure on the market in the short term. It is recommended that investors should trade cautiously in the coming sessions.

Futures contracts: Today's futures contracts tend to decrease except for the VN30F1M. It is recommended that investors trade cautiously during the session.

Covered warrants: In the trading session on December 8, 2023, covered warrants fluctuated along with the recovery of the underlying stocks.
