Market outlook

Stock market: VN-Index has been fluctuating within the range of 1,260 to 1,270 throughout today. At the close of trading, it stood at 1,268.46 points, showing a slight increase of nearly 6 points compared to yesterday. The market breadth leans toward the positive side, with 15 out of 18 sectors experiencing gains. Notably, the Energy sector led the upward trend today, followed by the Insurance and Chemical sectors. Regarding foreign trading activities, today saw net selling by foreign investors on the Ho Chi Minh Stock Exchange (HSX) and net buying on the Hanoi Stock Exchange (HNX). The pressure to take profits at the 1,270 threshold has prevented the VN-Index from surpassing it for three consecutive sessions. It is likely that the VN-Index will continue to hover within the current range before testing the 1,280 - 1,300 zone.

Futures contracts: Future contracts increase following the movement of VN30. It is recommended that investors trade cautiously during the session.

Covered warrants: In the trading session on March 7, 2024, covered warrants fluctuated along with the recovery of the underlying stocks.
