STOCK MARKET

VN-Index struggled at the 1,215 threshold this morning before being pushed down to the support threshold of 1,205. However, bottom-catching demand here brought the index back to close at 1,216.36 points, up nearly 7 points compared to yesterday. Market breadth tilted to the positive side with 17/18 sectors increasing, of which the Information Technology, Automobiles and spare parts led the increase. In contrast, the Financial Services was the only sector to decline. Regarding foreign transactions, today they were net sellers on both HSX and HNX. Currently, the recovery of VN-Index is still weak when liquidity is at a very low level and the index is facing the resistance level of 1,220 - where it was sold off very strongly. Investors should trade carefully.
