

STOCK MARKET

Opening with a negative gap, the VN-Index dropped to the 1,315 level before buying pressure at this point helped the index rebound, closing at 1,332.54 points, up more than 2 points compared to yesterday. The market breadth was fairly balanced with 12 out of 18 sectors posting gains, with the Tourism & Entertainment and Communications sectors showing the strongest performance. On the contrary, the Insurance sector led the decline. Regarding foreign trading activities, foreign investors were net sellers on HSX and net buyers on HNX exchanges today. The VN-Index closed above the 1,330 level, which somewhat eased concerns over yesterday's reversal signals. However, investors should continue to trade cautiously. In the upcoming sessions, the market needs to narrow its volatility range to establish a more solid base at the 1,330 level.
