

STOCK MARKET

The VN-Index continued to decline by over 6 points today, closing at 1,324.63 points. Market breadth leaned to the negative side, with 12 out of 18 sectors falling, led by the Information Technology and Retail sectors. On the contrary, the Chemicals sector recorded the strongest gain. Regarding foreign investor activity, they were net sellers on both the HSX and HNX exchanges today. Bottom-fishing demand emerged around the 1,320 level, preventing the VN-Index from dropping further. However, on the daily chart, the MACD line has crossed below the signal line, and liquidity during the two consecutive declining sessions remained relatively high. Therefore, the possibility of the index continuing its correction phase cannot be ruled out.

FUTURES CONTRACTS

Futures contracts all decreased according to the movement of VN30.
