

STOCK MARKET

Stock indices rose right from the start of the session as sentiment improved thanks to easing tariff tensions. At the close, the VN-Index settled at 1,293.43 points, up 10.17 points (+0.79%) compared to the previous session. The uptrend was reinforced by stronger market liquidity. Market breadth leaned positive with 17 out of 18 sectors gaining, notably Tourism & Entertainment, Retail, and Banking. Foreign investors net bought nearly VND 1,000 billion across all three exchanges. With global macro conditions improving, the market is likely to maintain its upward trend toward the 1,300–1,320 zone—levels seen before the U.S. announced its tariff policy on April 2, 2025. Sectors previously impacted by tariff concerns may also rebound as investor anxiety eases.

FUTURES CONTRACTS
