

STOCK MARKET

The VN-Index gained more than 13 points in today’s session, closing at 1,667.98 points. The number of declining stocks exceeded the number of gainers, with only 7 out of 18 sectors advancing, indicating that capital flows tended to concentrate on a select group of stocks. The Travel & Leisure sector led the gains, followed by Media, Real Estate, and others. Regarding foreign investor activity, today they recorded net selling on all three exchanges — HSX, HNX, and UPCOM. Market sentiment remains cautious, reflected in the persistently low liquidity. In the coming sessions, the VN-Index may continue moving toward the 1,680–1,700 range; however, without stronger liquidity support, the index is likely to advance with accompanying volatility.
