Vietnam Daily Review

Week ahead: Indices are bottoming out

BSC's Forecast on the stock market

	Negative	Neutral	Positive
Day 25/1/2016			•
Week 25/1-29/1/2016			•
Month 1/2016	•

Summary

The highlight of Friday's session is the recovery of oil and gas stocks thanks to the strong rise of crude oil prices yesterday. The optimism spread on the market that improved investor sentiment on Friday. VN-Index and UPCOM-Index rose slightly, while the HNX-Index gained significantly at closing.

Foreigners were net sellers on the HSX, but net buyers on HNX and UPCOM.

Recommendation

Positive sentiment is coming back in the last session. We expect that the short-term bottom will be established soon, and next week will be a week of recovery after the sharp decline.

Risk-seeking investors should continually take position in the deep reduction of the market. Cautious investors consider buying fundamental shares in the down sessions, not chasing the high prices.

Market highlights

Oil & Gas stocks (PVC, PVD and GAS) boosted strongly due to oil prices rose by 5%. Foreign investors continued to sell on the HSX. Some stocks surging significantly on both prices and volumes are ASA (+9.5%), PVC (+9.4%), DIG (+7%) and (6.7%).

Recommendations

VN-Index and HNX-Index recovered in late today trading session and finally closed in green, which indicates that bottom fishing was stronger. Notably, today low of VN-Index is 513 pts, not far from its 2015 low of about 511 points. From here, cash flow flowed strongly into the market, helping two indices rebound. We continually believe that the market is in the process of bottoming, and bottom fishing activities continue to occur and will help the market successfully create a trough around current point. A technical recovery may continuously appear in early next week and strong selling pressure will back when VN-Index reach near its resistance of 540-543 pts.

Risk-seeking investors should continually take position in the deep reduction of the market. Cautious investors consider buying fundamental shares in the down sessions, not chasing the high prices.

BFC - Binh Dien Fertilizer JSC (HSX)

Producing volume (thousand tons)	562	-16%	656	+17%
Selling volume (thousand tons)	607	-6%	675	+11%
Revenue (billion dong)	6,045	-6%	6,625	+10%

In Q3 2015, NPK Binh Dien - Mekong plant with the capacity of 100 thousand tons/year was put into operation and then the NPK Binh Dien - Ninh Binh plant with the initial capacity of 200 thousand tons / year went into operation on Oct 21st 2015 and the NPK Binh Dien- Tay Ninh plant with the initial capacity of 50 thousand tons/year went into operation on Dec 22nd 2016. The new plants lifted the total capacity of BFC from 675 thousand tons per year to 1025 thousand tons per year

Investment recommendation:

BFC will be the largest NPK producer in Vietnam. This will be a major growth driver of the company in 2016. However, please note that since the industry is in saturation state, domestic companies will face competition from imported fertilizer products, therefore the new plants will not be able to operate at full capacity at the initial period.

BFC is forecast to reach VND 7,537 billion in sales and VND 258 billion net profits attributable to owners of parent in 2016, equivalent to 2016 EPS = VND 5,155 / share. BFC was trading at a P / E forward = 5.02- the low level in comparison to other fertilizer stocks.
