Vietnam Daily Review

Unsuccessful attempt

BSC's Forecast on the stock market

	Negative	Neutral	Positive
Day 19/7/2016	•
Week 18/7-22/7/2016			•
Month 6/2016		•

Highlight

VN-Index traded mostly in green, approaching the top and the previous psychology zone at 675-680 points after peaking at 677.3 points thanks to price increase of VNM.

Strong selling pressure on VIC at 13h45 after VIC released "Tan Lien Phat Construction Jsc. has decided to suspend the conversion of loans worth 1.201.9 billion in industrial Group JSC Truong Thanh Furniture (TTF) due to detection a number of serious discrepancies between the actual figures and data provided by TTF ". Selling pressure also dragged TTF to floor, and quickly spread to other Bluechip such as BID, GAS, STB, particularly in surged shares such as KSB, DRH. VN-Index has slumped more than 10 points. In general, the market is not too negative and there is still a divergence in many stocks, including Real estate and Construction (HBC, HUT, KBC, LDG), Construction materials (CVT, TLT, VIT), on the other hand, Steel group (+ 3.3%) and Banking groups except VIS and VCB corrected. VN-Index closed at 667.8 (-0.9%), volume did not changed much from the previous session (continued below the 10-day average), gainers overwhelmed strongly by losers on the 2 floor, 277 stocks dropped / 169 gainers.

Recommendation

Though the market failed to test the top 675-680, it still lies in the up candlestick on 13/7. Hence, short-term trend has not been violated. In terms of Elliott wave, it is likely that VN-Index is moving in the wave 5 of the medium-term recovery cycle since 22.01.2016. Upper and lower zones of the price range from 660 to 675 will confirm it is merely wave 5 or extended wave 5. If VN-Index falls below 660 points, it is likely that VN-Index is in normal wave 5 and 675 points was short-term top of medium-term wave 5 and it will correct according to the principle of a-b-c with the target at 630-640 points. Conversely, if VN-Index overcomes 675-680 points, it will extend the wave 5 with target price stays above 700 points.

Market highlights

Besides the group of Steel stocks, many other blue-chips as SSI, VNM, VCB... continued to rise and contributing to the gaining of VN-Index. In contrast, the mining stocks as BGM, KSA... still could not stop the sell-off. KSA even had an oversold of over 10 million shares at floor price. In the afternoon, the focus put on VIC and TTF. When the negative information related to VIC and TTF mentioned on the previous page was published, TTF fell to the floor with a large amount of oversold. Even, VIC also slipped to the floor price though recovered soon after and closed at 52 (-3.7%). This two stocks plunged sharply made the market suddenly fell into panic status, the strong selling pressure in large stocks on the market made the VN-Index fell more than 13 points in the worst time, the session closed down 5.74 points corresponding to -0.9%. Foreign investors remained at net-buying position on the two exchanges today with increased value.

Recommendations

- The current trend of the VN-Index is still uptrend. VN-Index is currently trading over the boundary of the mid-term upward channel according to the daily chart.
- Technical signals: MACD continues with positive divergence, ADI surpassed 20 successfully with +DI trading over -DI, ATR continues to maintain a high level and support the mid-term uptrend but RSI after 2 week trading at overbought side is now showing the signs of declining, Bollinger bands and MFI are creating divergence with price, signaling a probability of adjustment, back to the top boundary of mid-term upward channel at 655, equivalent to MA 15.
- The technical signal of the HNX-Index is now worse than the VN-Index when: MACD started a negative divergence and simultaneously ADX dropped below 20, with +DI is close to -DI, RSI decrease continuously, Bollinger Bands narrowed, trading volume was lower than the 10-day average. HNX-Index is trading near the level of 86.3, equivalent to MA 15 and may recover slightly before continuing the adjustment.
