Market outlook

Hesitation of investors about the world macroeconomic has caused the market decreased. However, the recovery of stocks in the Banking and Securities sectors helped the index rebound. VN30 group continued to be divided strongly with the number of increased and decreased stocks were quite balanced. Notably, Alquaculture sector was attracting large cash flow of investors and increased strongly. BSC believed that the market is turning positive when selling pressure is gradually weakening. Investors should wait for cash flow to return to the market as the current liquidity is still low, showing no sustainable recovery.

- Current trend: Long term uptrend

- MACD: Sticking close on the Signal line
