Market outlook

Stock market: Standing firmly above 1500 was arduous for VN-Index when the pressure from both sellers and buyers continuously forced the index to fluctuate around 1500. After those struggling moments, VN-Index finally successfully closed at 1500.99, a slight increase of 3 points compared to yesterday. The golden trio of "bank, securities, and steel" temporarily separated. While steel and banking sectors were having a positive session today, securities stocks was divergent. Market breadth tilted to the positive side with 11/19 gainers. Regarding the transactions of foreign investors, today they were a net seller on the HSX and a net buyer on the HNX. Today's liquidity improved but was still insignificant. In the coming sessions, VN-Index is likely to return to test MA20.

Future contracts: The uptrend of VN30 has led to an increase in the score of futures contracts. Investors should be cautious in the coming trading sessions.

Covered warrants: In the trading session on February 8, 2022, most warrants increased according to the movement of the underlying stock.

Outlook:

- VN30 increased by 9.21 points to 1550.46 points. Stocks such as HPG, VPB, ACB, TCB, MWG, FPT have positively impacted VN30's movement. The positive session helped VN30 maintain the movement trend in the range of 1530-1550 points. However, with relatively low liquidity compared to previous sessions, this uptrend may not hold in the coming sessions
- The increase of VN30 has led to an increase in the score of futures contracts. In terms of trading volume, futures contracts all increased. In terms of open positions, all contracts increased. An increase in the score and an increase in open interest indicates a long accumulation trend. Investors should be cautious in the coming trading sessions.
